

I am concerned that HF and VHF signals sent onto power lines will increase the noise level on Amateur Radio bands and that this will undermine the ability of ham radio operators to service the public interest in the event of a national emergency. I ask that BPL not proceed until adequate site studies, with ARRL participation, have been conducted and that there is a convincing demonstration that BPL will not cause harmful interference to amateur radio operations.

Thank you,
Bill Burry
KB4SGE